

SKILLS

- Rapid prototyping through wireframes and in-browser design and development.
- Information architecture and page flow assessment.
- Effective user experience centered design.
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills.
- Client communication and expectations management.
- Brainstorming, strategy, concept development, and art direction.
- Elicitation of business requirements from project stakeholders.
- Translation of business requirements into solutions.
- Business logic evaluation and implementation.
- Quality control and systems testing.
- User story creation and estimation.
- Agile / Scrum and Waterfall methodologies.
- Independent worker.

EXPERIENCE

Franke | Business Systems Analyst

JULY 2016 - PRESENT, SMYRNA, TN

- Translate user requirements and desires into actionable technical direction for development.
- Design effective and logical user experience enhancements to a complex and fully featured homegrown ERP application.
- Work with end users to make meaningful platform and process changes that enhance and optimize their current and future workflow.
- Coordinate software feature updates from conception through testing and release.
- Work hand in hand with development to determine the feasibility and path to completion of new features.

NIC | UX / UI Interface Solutions Designer

NOVEMBER 2013 - JULY 2016, NASHVILLE, TN

- Create intuitive user experiences for TN.gov web and mobile applications.
- Elicit business requirements through document analysis and client interviews.
- Assist in user story creation and estimation.
- Translate business requirements into application features through design and development.
- HTML / CSS / jQuery web application development.
- Utilize clear and concise communication and decision making to ensure project is kept in scope and budget.
- Participate in an Agile development cycle and Scrum methodology.

Purdue University (Entomology Dept.) | Web Design Lead

MAY 2012 - OCTOBER 2013, WEST LAFAYETTE, IN

- Manage all web projects for the Entomology Department.
- Assist clients with the discovery of their business requirements.
- Document all requirements for web projects and translate those requirements into features.
- Design, develop, test, and implement all department websites.

EDUCATION

Purdue University | Bachelor of Science

AUGUST 2006 - MAY 2010, WEST LAFAYETTE, IN